

AAMDSIF Bone Marrow Failure Disease

Patient & Family Conference

Saturday, April 25, 2020

7:30am - 3pm

Georgia State University - College of Arts & Sciences

Downtown Atlanta, Georgia

LOCATION

Georgia State University
College of Arts & Sciences
25 Park Place NE #2500
Atlanta, GA 30303

PARKING

Attendees should park in the Hurt Parking Garage which is one block away from the Conference venue.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Patients, families and caregivers who are living with a bone marrow failure disease are encouraged to attend this Conference. This includes aplastic anemia, PNH, MDS and AML.

PARTNERS

AAMDSIF is delighted to be working with the faculty and staff of Northside Hospital, Emory University—Winship Cancer Institute and the Georgia Cancer Center/August University to bring you this FREE conference and with the staff at Georgia State University College of Arts & Sciences, our hosts for the Conference.

CONFIRMED FACULTY

Melhem M. Solh, M.D.
The Blood & Marrow Transplant Group of Georgia
Northside Hospital, Atlanta

Martha L. Arellano, M.D.
Winship Cancer Center
Emory University School of Medicine

Jorge Cortes, M.D.
Georgia Cancer Center
Augusta University

DRAFT AGENDA

7:30am Registration & Continental Breakfast

8:30am Welcome & Opening Plenary
Overview of Bone Marrow Failure Diseases

9:00am Morning I Sessions

- Breaking Down the Complexities of an MDS Diagnosis: From IPSS-R to Risk Levels
- Diagnosing the Rarest Diseases: Aplastic Anemia & PNH

10:15am Morning II Sessions

- Aplastic Anemia and PNH: Assessing New Treatment Options and What's in the Pipeline
- When MDS Becomes AML: What Every High Risk MDS Patient Should Know About Treatment

11:15am Morning III Sessions

- Life After Diagnosis: Mental Wellness, Bone Health and Longevity
- Is a Bone Marrow Transplant the Right Option for You: New Thinking in BMT for Bone Marrow Failure Patients

12:30pm Celebrating Survivors Lunch

1:30pm Round I Afternoon Sessions

- Living with Aplastic Anemia & PNH: A Candid Conversation with Patients and Caregivers
- Living with MDS and AML: A Candid Conversation with Patients and Caregivers

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!

Online: www.aamds.org/education

Phone: (301) 279-7202 x2

Email: conference@aamds.org